F - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 2	People Entering As Refugees	Toney Salva	Helping Refugees Build Community in Your City	Toney has worked with refugees in his community for more than 15 years in both Lowell, MA and Pittsburgh, PA. In each city, Tony and other leaders helped to establish Christian community and new churches to serve the needs of local refugees.
F - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 3	International Students	Christian Student Fellowship Staff - University of Kentucky, Lexington	Reach the Freshmen and You Reach the University	By reaching freshmen students at the university, we will eventually be reaching every other influence group at the university. Discover what strategies are the most effective to reach the freshmen students on your campus from those who work specifically with freshmen.
F - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 4	Church	John Hendee	Part 1: Training Disciples Who Can Make NEW Disciples	In both parts of this workshop, I will explain how my Relational Evangelism training, endorsed by Josh McDowell, is helping Christians learn how to make NEW Disciples through 4 sit-down presentations of the Gospel with them. It is a proven model and method being used successfully in many places. I'll share what the training is, the 4 lessons, how it works and how it can be used to start training people in how to successfully start reaching out to make disciples of those they know and meet in life.
F - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 5	Encouragement	Mark Miller	Leading From a Deep Well	Too many leaders are operating from dangerous deficits—putting lives, marriages, and ministries at risk. However, God intends His servants to be deeply rooted in His Spirit and His Word—operating at a capacity that is sustainable only by His presence. Join us in a study of God's promises that never fail, where you can learn to draw daily from the depths of God's power.
F - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 6	Women	Annie Bishop, Katie Broyles & Emilie Cooper	Three Sisters with One Mission: Discovering Challenges on the Field	Three sisters serving in three very different parts of the world explore challenges and fears that new missionaries face. After their first several years on the field, these sisters share how God has taught them to depend on His grace alone through trials.
F - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 7	Global Business	Greg Matney & Aatma Vikas	BAM: Making Your Mission Financially Sustainable and Strategically Relevant	Can your mission become more financially sustainable and strategically relevant at the same time? Donor fatigue and unhealthy dependencies are only part of a changing picture. Meeting a community's felt need and powerfully demonstrating the Gospel in Word and Deed through marketplace initiatives provides a holistic answer and opportunity for transformation.
F - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 8	Mobilization	Panel Discussion - Kirsten Lynch, Christi Phillips, Stephen Capps	Hearing His Voice - "You want me, LORD?"	Each of us have at one time or another felt that strong tug to serve the Lord cross-culturally as a missionary. Sometimes that "calling" is very clear, but oftentimes it is not. In this workshop you'll hear personal stories and learn ways to discern God's calling upon your life-mission.
F - 9	Convention Center	Bluegrass Ballroom 2	Life Coaching	Dean Trune	Character Coaching	A major problem among Christians today is a lack of character. Our need to further develop our own character and the need to help others develop more of a Jesus-based character are monumental. This workshop will provide tools for helping ourselves and for helping others identify some character needs. We will also examine how then to move forward toward maturity with guidance and accountability.
F - 9	Convention Center	Elkhorn B	Leadership	Jose Rodriguez	A Model: Restoring Faith House by House	There are many methods used by different missions to plant churches, an example of these methods are: schools, clinics, orphanages and others. All these methods have helped the church enter foreign countries. In this session, we will talk about some of the oldest methods to plant new churches. We will cover the method of evangelism used by House by House and strategically founding small groups in various houses.
F - 9	Convention Center	Elkhorn C	Least of These	Diana Lawrence	Do You Have a Reservation?	Are you interested in serving the Lord on a cross-cultural mission field, but hesitant to head to a foreign country? Within the borders of the United States are people who desperately need to hear about the hope of Christ. Their culture, their language, their world-views are cross-cultural to mainstream US...but their residences are surprisingly nearby. Come hear the history, the Biblical mandate, and the current needs of YOUR Native brothers and sisters... Come prepared to gain information to serve on a reservation near you!

Attendees will have information that is useful to consider alternatives to media use in the ministry.
F - 9	Hyatt	Woodford Suite	Church	Laminda & Denise Ubhayawansha	Understanding Honor and Shame in Biblical and Current Cultures	Most non-western and ancient cultures thrive within an honor and shame frame of thinking. It can be hard for westerners to understand this context since our culture prizes individuality and independence. In this session we will help you better understand how honor and shame cultures think by looking at examples from the Bible as well as looking at them in existence today.
F - 9	Hyatt	Scott Suite	Least of These	Andy Baker & Chuck Guth	Bringing Hope to Children through Transformational Moments	Many children in the world are deprived of at least one basic necessity of life such as food, clean water, shelter or healthcare. That means instead of enjoying their childhood these children spend their formative years just struggling to survive. Often they are forgotten and left without hope. Join us as we explore how we can bring change to these forgotten children through transformational moments by mobilizing believers to make a difference one child at a time.
F - 9	Hyatt	Franklin Suite	Fundraising	Jason Hanselman	Fundraising Bootcamp	You will leave with the knowledge you need to simplify your message and funding rationale, and understand how to maximize your fundraising efforts to accomplish the vision God has given you. You will gain some practical tools to help with these areas: 1. How to execute an effective fundraising process (for major gifts, transformational gifts, etc.) 2. How to build and maximize relationships 3. How to build and lead an effective team 4. How to ask, close, and follow up. The Fundraising Bootcamp is perfect if you are just beginning to raise funding, or if you are ready to take a quantum leap in finding funding for your mission and ministry. This session is intense! Get ready for a whole new paradigm in raising money.

You will learn how to take each of these steps in this workshop.
F - 4	Hilton	Lilly of the Valley	Islam	Saleem Massey	Terrorists and Persecuted Christians	An innocent Christian community is suffering at the hands of Taliban terrorists in Pakistan as well as in other Islamic countries. In March, while Christians were celebrating Easter, Taliban terrorists attacked Christians. Last year, terrorists attacked two churches in Lahore: 15 people martyred and hundred injured; 400 families scattered and suffering. There is great need to make our people aware of how to evangelize in an Islamic world as well as in the Western world. Praise the Lord, even in persecution Christians are still worshipping the Lord. What shall separate us from the love of Christ? No, in all things we are more than conquerors in Him who love us.

S - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 1	Going Deeper With God	Mark Whited	Going Deeper with God through Hearing and Responding to God's Voice	An exciting adventure awaits us as we follow Jesus with a expectancy of hearing and obeying His voice. We can grow in better discerning the voice of Jesus and all those "other" voices. What a joy to keep in step with the Spirit of Jesus with greater sensitivity and confidence.
S - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 2	Life Coaching	Dean Trune & Michael Van Dyk	Conversational Coaching	Coaching can take place in everyday conversations. It is a matter of asking good open-ended questions. Is formal coach training beneficial? Yes. Is it absolutely necessary to coach others? No. Learn how to coach others in informal settings that will greatly bless those around you.
S - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 3	International Students	Bob Milliken	Leading Destinations: Walking with International Students through Trips and Travel	So much is learned along a journey. Exploring zoos, museums, and hiking the trails offer wonderful opportunities to talk about life, family, faith and issues of the heart. This workshop gives practical ideas about taking international students on journeys of discovery.
S - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 4	The Response of the Church to the Global Epidemic of Human Trafficking and Sexual Exploitation	Opal Singleton	EXPLOITED: Crimes Against Humanity	Technology now makes it possible for thousands of predators to virtually violate a single child anywhere on earth. Join us as we explore how technology meets exploitation and what God's people can do about it. This could very well be one of the most important missions of our lifetime.
S - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 5	Encouragement	Gayla Congdon	Are You in it for the Long Haul?	A Christian for 53 years and in full-time ministry for 40 years. How did she do it - how has she lasted and defied the odds? Gayla will draw from her experiences as a life long missionary to provide the necessary tools needed for longevity not only in the ministry but how to live a continuous life of passion in one's faith. This will be an interactive workshop so come prepared to get energized about what it means to live strong in order to finish strong
S - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 6	Women	Laura Mullenix	Rediscover YOUR Heart and the Heart of Your Ministry	What if I told you that it's easy to lose connection with God while helping others find Him? As women, our hearts are tender and eager to love and care for others, but are also vulnerable to discouragement and exhaustion. Personal soul-care, deep and gentle, is vital to your life and ministry
S - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 7	Church	Lynn Lusby Pratt & Lena Wood	Dark Deceptions	The missionary to Buddhists, the native minister to Hindus, the ex-Satanist - these experts see it. See what? New twists on old deceptions infiltrating our churches. Learn how to spot Buddhist, Hindu, occult and New Age teachings. Handouts will be given as well as a time for Q & A.
S - 9	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 8	Mobilization	Panel Discussion - Nathan Davenport, Matt Rogie, Jordan Shelton	Do Not Be Afraid - Overcoming the Fears That Hold Us Back	At some point when we are thinking about mission service, we start to envision how our "calling" will impact our lives and the lives of people we care deeply about. Fear of the unknown, or even the known, becomes a huge obstacle! This workshop will speak frankly about many of our fears and how the Lord proves Himself faithful in every circumstance.

S - 9	Hyatt	Scott Suite	Missions 101	Reggie Hundley	A WORLD of Missions Information... Then and Now	In the Information Age, it is easy to find anything right? Well, maybe! These are exciting times in world missions. With so much happening around the world, it should be easy to know what is happening anywhere at any time! Well, maybe! Along with the wealth of information available, information has also become fragmented and difficult to find in all of the clutter. There are ways to learn about the rich history of Restoration Movement mission activity and the flood of activity of today. Come learn how!
S - 9	Hyatt	Franklin Suite	Transformational Community Development	Terry Dalrymple	The Million Village Challenge	The poorest of the poor and the majority of unengaged peoples live in remote villages. The Million Village Challenge is a global partnership initiative aimed at mitigating poverty and taking the good news of the Gospel to unengaged villages inside the 10/40 window. Learn to come alongside villagers living in extreme poverty, making disciples and planting the church while empowering them to find solutions to six key areas contributing to cyclical poverty – water, food, education, income, wellness, and worldview.
S - 9	Hyatt	Jessamine Suite	Short Term Mission Trips	Tory Ruark & Kathy Mort	Stuff to Know Before You Go - Preparing STM Teams for a Lifetime of Service	Two, four, maybe six months... That's all you have with team members to prepare them for service and impact them for the rest of their lives. Feel the pressure? Maybe you should - but don't be discouraged. This workshop will help you determine the areas in which you need to prepare participants for ministry, what to cover, and how to go about it all with the goal of discipling and preparing them for a lifetime of ministry and service that goes far beyond two-week trip.
S - 9	Hilton	Grand Ballroom A	Disciple Making Movements	Curtis Sergeant	LOOKING FORWARD	What part will you play? What would God have you do? S - 2	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 1	Going Deeper With God	Lowell Kosak	Going Deeper with God through Silence, Solitude, & Sabbath	Jesus often stepped away from the needs of people and ministry to be alone with His Father in unhurried communion. As spiritual leaders, we live not at the mercy of the culture's pace, but rather in a rhythm of life that provides margin for us to be the very presence of Christ in the world. Silence, Solitude, & Sabbath are a few of the disciplines that we practice to know the heart of God.
S - 2	Convention Center	Thoroughbred 2	Life Coaching	Jon Taylor	Strengthening Missions Workers Through Coaching	Wouldn't you love to be more effective in your work? To have growth in the areas you struggle with? To have someone who understands your situation and who will support and encourage you as you strive to achieve your goals? Coaching is the art of engaging leaders in conversational process that results in levels of growth and performance they would not have achieved on their own. In this session we'll introduce coaching and the many benefits for missions workers that can result from a great coaching relationship.
